EMERSONIAN

1966

130 Beacon Street
Boston, Massachusetts

S. JUSTUS McKINLEY

President

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June, 1966

Dear Emersonians:

At our approaching Eighty-sixth Commencement you, the Class of 1966, will change your status and role in our Emerson College family from student to alumnus. Four years of hope and effort by you, the faculty and administration have been directed toward this Convocation where you will receive your well earned degrees. Yet with all our rejoicing we approach this day with some sadness because it means we will no longer be working together in classroom and activities.

These have been years of growth; growth in your understanding, knowledge, skills and capacity for communication and leadership; growth in the facilities of your College and in the range and quality of the educational experiences available on campus. The Class of 1966 has helped to shape and direct that growth and thus left an indelible imprint on your College.

We live in an era which demands growth on the part of individuals and of institutions. This is the great burden of our age. If we in the twentieth century can learn to use the ever increasing flood of new knowledge and new technology, you, in your life time, can climb to heights undreamed of today. But failure to grow enough to contain and direct these potent forces will produce violent and explosive adjustments which can mean not only personal disaster but the end of mankind.

Your yet unused potential for growth in appreciation, in insight, in creative expression, in human relations and in leadership represent both your opportunity and your responsibility. Men and women with the capacity for communication and for leadership in adjustment to change will be increasingly needed in your life time. But the growth in capacity for communication and leadership must be accompanied by a growth in the understanding of the meaning of integrity.

The breakdown in the development of integrity and personal responsibility is the great threat to our ever more interdependent society. So my wish for you is that you may see ever more clearly the meaning of integrity in your professional standards, in your family relations, in your life as a citizen and as a member of a community.

We on campus will follow your careers with pride and pleasure and look forward to your reunion visits. We will count on your playing your full part in the work of the Alumni Association and are confident that through the united efforts of our Emerson family our College as well as the Class of 1966 will continue to develop the capacities needed to take advantage of its opportunities and fulfill its responsibilities in this dynamic age.

Sincerely yours,

S. Justus McKinley,
President

Student life at Emerson College is many things to many people . . . it is Speech, Theatre, Radio Television, Speech Pathology and Audiology, and to others it is Liberal Arts. Emersonians are a study in diversity of interests. Life is sometimes centered in the classroom, and for others it is centered on the social events . . . Homecoming, Dream Girl Ball, Tau's Christmas Carol Sing, Winter Weekend, the Junior Prom and for the seniors, Commencement Weekend. Let us explore some of the other aspects of Emerson life . . .

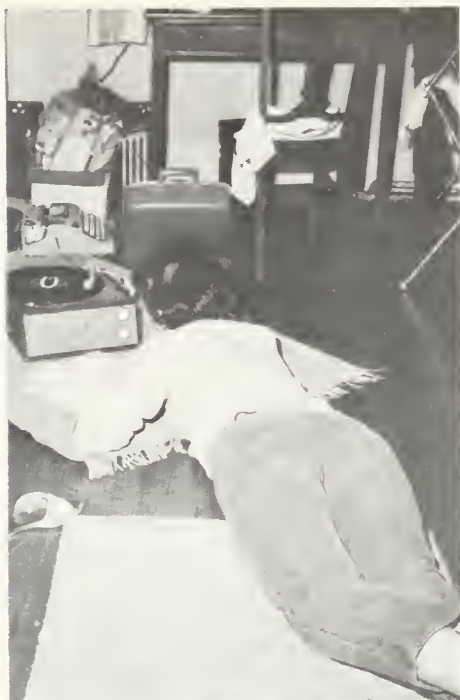

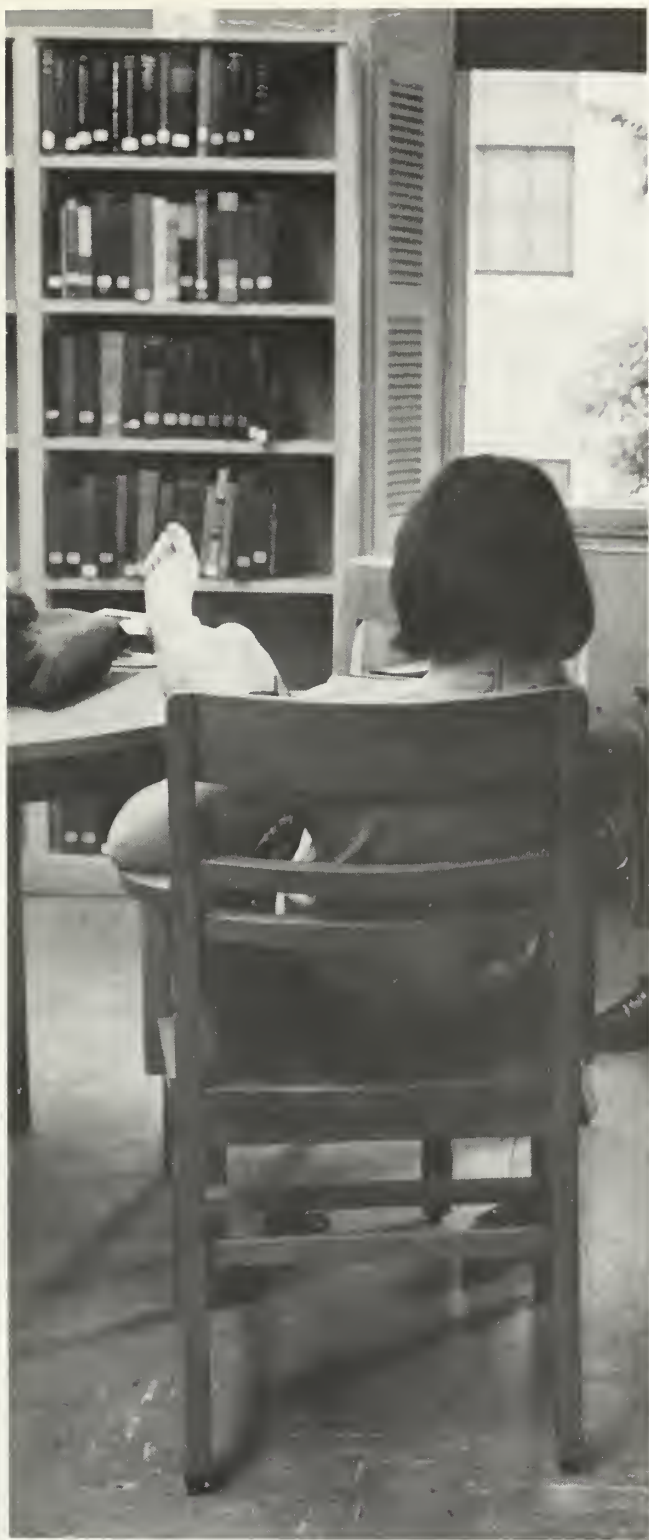

the creating . . .

the unorthodox studying . . .

BLOOD DRIVE for VIET NAM

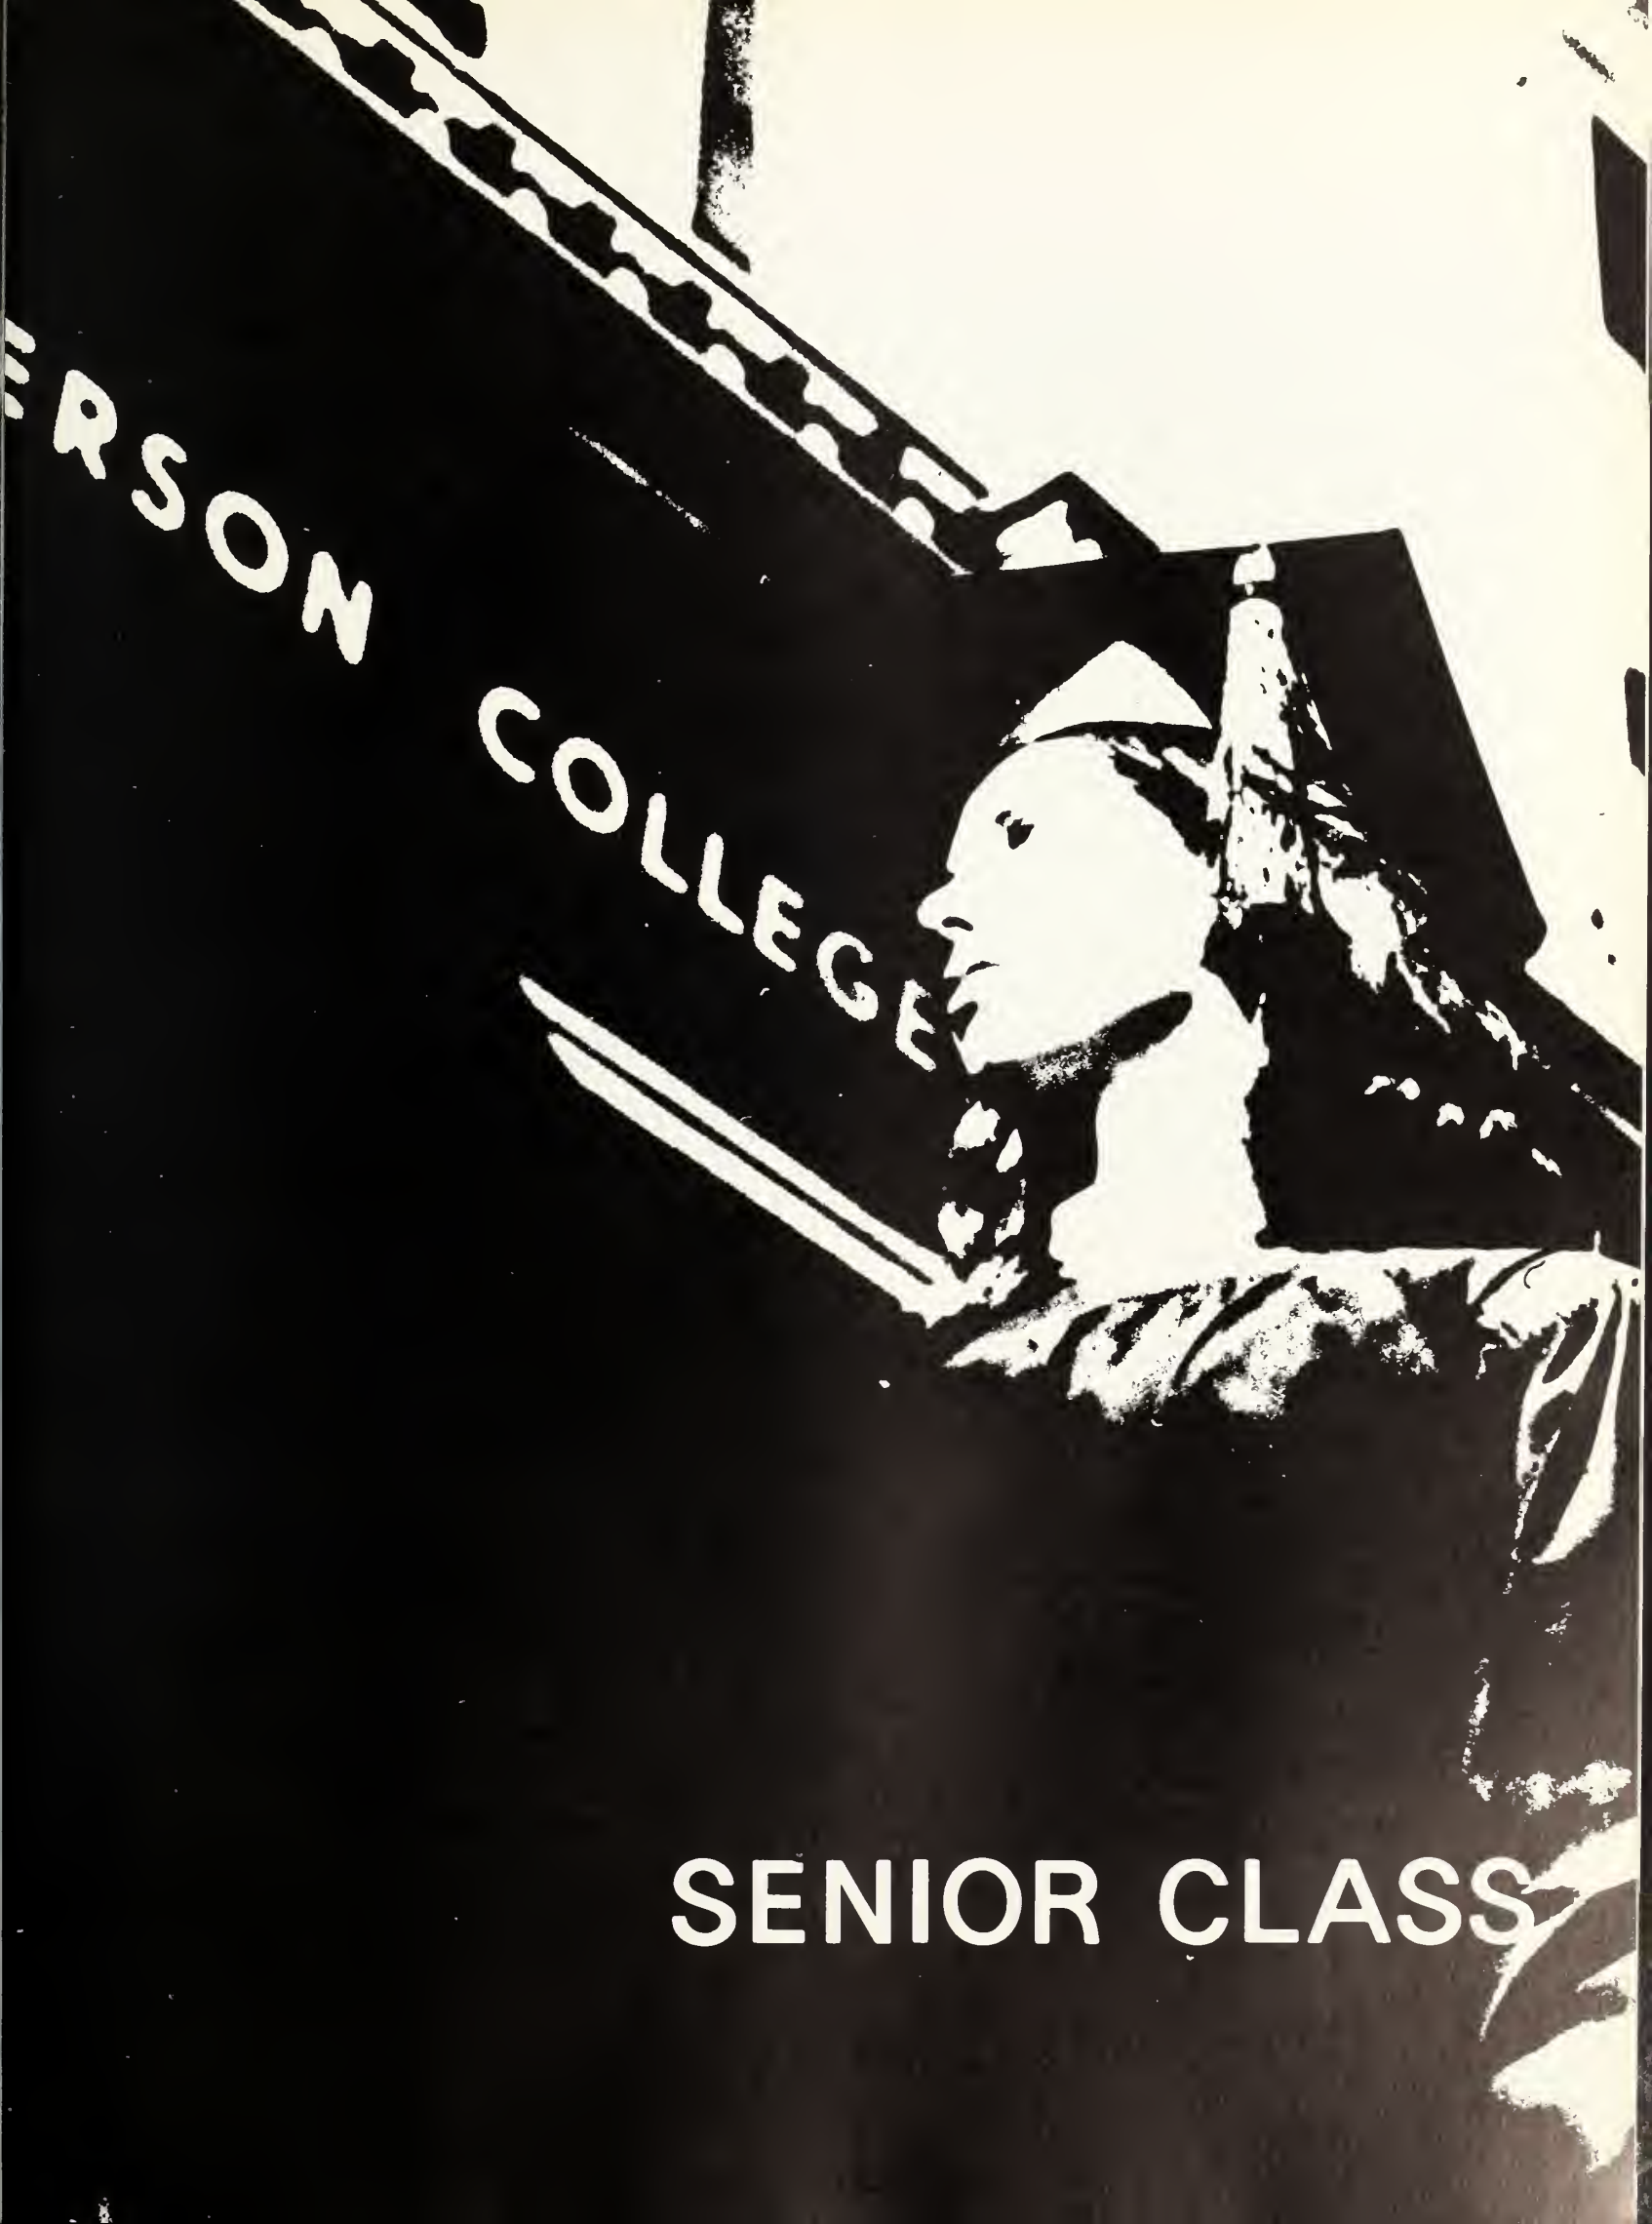

December 7th of 1965 became a D-Day of another kind as the Persuasive Speaking Class, in association with the Student Government Association, made it Donor Day so that Emerson College students and others could give blood for the soldiers fighting in Viet Nam. The project began with the setting up of a booth during a Viet Nam rally. This resulted in the soliciting of 70 to 75 names of people from the rally and from the street who were willing to give blood.

The volunteers from the college, and there were approximately 100 of them, went to the Massachusetts General Hospital, where their blood became part of a new program for freezing and shipping blood.

The drive did not represent a stand on the Viet Nam policy, rather it was a humane gesture designed to dispel the image of students as draft card burners.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Summers in Boston are long and hot but those students who stay by choice, to get ahead, or are forced to make up credits seem to survive in fine style. Classes are moved to the Esplanade or the Public Garden and everyone relaxes. Classes are small and each student has the opportunity to get to know his instructors. Summer school is not all work—every afternoon one can see the exodus from Boston to the beaches in the area. Summer school—an opportunity for the dedicated, and not so dedicated student to experience a full and productive summer.

This year represented a re-birth for athletics at Emerson College. The establishment of an Athletic Department, and in turn new funds and facilities have aided the efforts of our varsity teams.

A member of the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (N.E.I.W.A.), the Emerson Wrestling Team competed with such league members as M.I.T., Boston College, Brandeis, Holy Cross, and Rhode Island College. The culmination of five months of practice is seen both in dual-meet competition and in the annual N.E.I.W.A. Championships.

Following the "ground-breaking" efforts in previous years by Sponsor Haig der Marderosian ('54) and former Coach Carl Eastman ('61) was the addition of a new coach, Mr. James Peckham. A former Olympic wrestler, he has given the team excellent training in the sport and has earned their respect both on and off the mat. "Purple Panthers" in previous years, and "Lions" today, the Wrestlers have learned well their Coach's concept of "Earning the Right to Win."

Rollie Eubanks

The Basketball Team with the aid of the new coach, Mr. Ridin, had a successful season and anticipates a championship next year. Captain Harvey Grodensky is the only graduating senior, and although his absence will be felt, there are many returning players who will carry the Emerson Lions to victory.

Captain Carl Buck

BASB

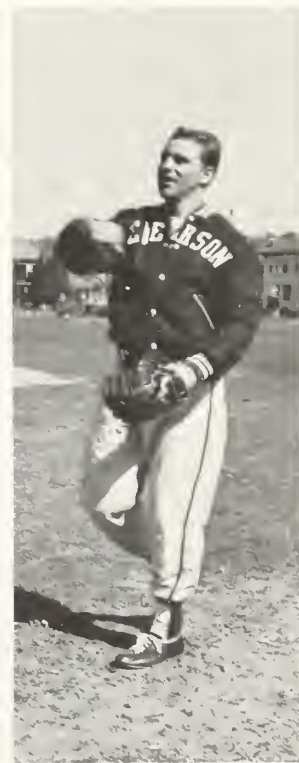

To sum up the past two years of Emerson Baseball one would have to say "Frustration."

Two years ago up in New Hampshire Carl Buck pitched a 15 inning game only to lose on an error in the bottom of the 16th. In that same season the team won one and lost six—four of the six in extra innings.

The following year was the same story—extra innings and one run losses.

BUT THIS YEAR!

BALL

Kneeling: P. Stanley, B. Blivise, S. Slate, B. Grosch, E. Pappas, L. Lowers, B. Soloway, N. Gross, D. Prosser, F. Round, P. Oxfeld, J. Henschel. Row 1: S. Steinberg, B. Turkheimer, C. Lavine, M. SAILING CLUB

The Emerson College Sailing Club, though it is relatively new, is one of the largest student organizations. According to the Sailing Club Constitution, "The purpose of the Club shall be to promote recreational and competitive sailing." Sailing, racing and sailing instruction are available to the student through membership.

Over the past two years our racing program has become quite extensive. In 1964 The Emerson College Sailing Club became an Associate member of the New England Inter-Collegiate Sailing Association (N.E.I.S.A.), and a Provisional member of the New England Women's Inter-Collegiate Sailing Association (N.E.W.I.S.A.). It is through these two organizations that the Emerson Sailing Team competes against other schools on the East Coast.

Since last Spring the Emerson College Sailing Club has added two new boats to its existing fleet of seven boats; a Newport fiberglass Finn and a Boston Whaler that is used as a crash boat.

G A L

Rodman, J. Berkowitz, S. Steinberg, B. Endervelt. Row 3: L. Tunick, S. Steinberg, S. Rosenberg, J. Mayer, M. Cohn.

G.A.L. has brought some of its broad objectives to a realization—a diversified physical fitness program for the female student body. A program every Tuesday evening at the YWCA on Clarendon Street offers such activities as volleyball and tennis; on Thursdays swimming is enjoyed. Springtime finds the G.A.L.'s out on the softball field.

G.A.L. has finally become accredited. Incoming Freshmen can substitute G.A.L. for the required physical fitness program.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year marked another first in our school's athletic program. Under coach James A. Banks a core of six dedicated men organized, trained, and competed as the first Emerson College Cross-Country Team. Without proper equipment or facilities, the team pushed on.

They ran only two meets this year due to a late start, but showed vast improvement by the end of the season.

Our team did not stop when competition was over. It remained together throughout the Spring, instituting a year-round training program. When it again begins competition next fall, the team will be better prepared to bring more victories to the purple and gold.

ner, Treasurer, T. Kasden, W. Kloper. Standing: G. Adler, B. Feeney, P. Oxfeld.

BOOSTER CLUB

"Having a desire to promote Emerson College through the field of athletics, we the students hereby establish the Emerson College Booster Club"

Its constitution accepted this year by S.G.A., the goal of the Booster Club is to "create a greater awareness of athletics among the students of the college," and to "further instill a pride in the college through direct student support and participation in this organization." The annual Student-Faculty basketball game (where youth overcame experience by winning 73-26) and the establishment of a new tradition, an Athletic Banquet, were fine examples of the Club's progress, as was the construction of permanent "Booster Boards" which tell of up-coming sports events and recent scores.

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a calendar grid. The calendar is partially obscured by large, dark, irregular shapes on the right and bottom. The visible portion shows the top row of dates with labels 'SUN', 'MON', and 'TUE-TH'. The grid consists of several rows of empty date boxes.

NEWMAN CLUB

Newman Club began a new policy this year in that it has eliminated its dues. Therefore it is open to students of all faiths although it is a Roman Catholic organization. Meetings are held each month under the direction of the Chaplain, Fr. Deveraux, O.S.B. Fr. Deveraux began a new policy of sending out news letters to the members of the club in order to stimulate discussion at the meetings. Aside from the regularly scheduled monthly meetings there was a monthly Communion Supper followed by a dinner and discussion or other activity.

HILLEL

In the past year, Hillel has sponsored many lecturers, dances, and various social functions in co-operation with other Hillel groups in the Boston area. Its primary activity was a bi-weekly discussion group with Rabbi Pearlman, concerning the Hebrew tradition, morals, and other related topics. One of the highlights of this, and every season is a model Seder, where the ceremony was conducted and described by the Rabbi and officers of Hillel.

The function of Hillel is to represent to Jewish students all phases of their religion, for it is their belief that the well-rounded person is a definite asset to his community life.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association has been revived under the direction of Rev. William Van Wyngan of the Old South Church after being inactive for a two year period. SCA hopes to increase its membership so that it will be able to present some of the activities the members have been formulating.

The purpose of SCA is to interest Protestant students in their faith; to worship and work together in an attempt to learn more completely the meaning of Christianity; and to share together the task of strengthening brotherhood in this Association and throughout the world.

J. Arselanian, Treasurer, C. Lichman, J. Houle, President, H. Comstock, Secretary, P. Brenner. Standing: D. Crowley, B. Dine.

INTER-FAITH COUNCIL

Inter-Faith Council is composed of the Presidents of the three religious organizations and a representative from each organization. Inter-Faith sponsors a monthly Chapel at which the Emerson Choir sings and they award a Brotherhood prize to someone who they feel has promoted inter-faith relationships. The offices are rotating so that there is equality between the organizations represented. The main purpose of the organization is to promote Brotherhood throughout the college.

The Emerson College Speech Choir has the distinction of being the only choir of its kind on the Eastern Seaboard. This year it is under the direction of Mr. Everett Rich. The choir gives performances throughout the New England area as well as a Fall and Spring concert at the college. It shares a program with the Singing Choir for the annual Christmas Convocation. The choir specializes in group interpretation of material and is constantly on the lookout for new and exciting material. The choir will end a successful year with a banquet which was instituted by last year's director, Mr. Vito Silvestri.

SINGING CHOIR

Row 1: B. Grosch, L. LaLuz, M. Jackson, A. Reiss, D. Mayr, B. Bryan, Secretary-Treasurer, H. Liberman, F. Palms, President, Mr. Pettitt, D. Nyman, Pianist. Row 2: J. Rommel, J. Jacobs, D. Lindskog, D. Vagramian, G. Wiren, D. Stewart, S. Orford. Row 3: J. Stackhouse, K. Pfeiffer, N. Faulkner, L. Sanford, B. Strasnick, S. Lewis. Row 4: J. Gersch, L. Geiger, R. Drosnes, J. Rose, J. Welch. Row 5: B. Johnston, J. MacDonald, A. Serino, D. Ievins, J. Clark. Row 6, Down steps: T. Tennant, J. Rigrod, W. Kloper, P. Kreppel.

The Singing Choir of Emerson College, under the able direction of Robert Pettitt, has a record of performances in such functions as Chapel Services, Founders Day Convocation, Commencement, and at its Christmas and Spring Concerts. This year the Choir has presented music from all periods, including a collection of choruses from operas of Wagner, Purcell, Verdi, Menotti, and Britten.

Our Christmas Concert presented the cantata "For Us A Child Is Born," and the chorus from "Amahl and the Night Visitors" by Gian Carlo Menotti.

The Spring Concert was devoted to music of Schubert, Mozart, and Berger, with the major work The Schubert Mass in G, accompanied by a small orchestra and soloists.

Again this year, the small group from the Choir, sometimes known as The Cantata Singers, was a tight-knit musical unit presenting works of a chamber nature by Joahan Schein and Mozart, and acting as a nucleus for some of the larger works.

Our membership this year, though large, is spirited and talented, all of which goes to make this one of our banner years in the Choir's history.

BERKELEY BEACON

The BERKELEY BEACON, Emerson's campus newspaper is published by the students for the general interest of the College. This year, under the leadership of David Simson, the BB has tried to become "the voice" of each student, giving everyone a chance to voice his opinions. The healthy controversy initiated by editorials and letters has led to interest and action. David and his staff have done much in 1965-1966 to improve the image of the newspaper—and it is more widely read now than ever before.

SCRIBE

Row 1: M. Hymes, J. Warshaw, M. Margolis, Assistant Editor, H. Comstock, Editor, S. Orford. Row 2: H. Rogut, J. Rodack, M. Kletter.

SCRIBE, Emerson's literary quarterly, is the result of the creative effort of the undergraduate student body under the guidance of Dr. James Randall. The magazine features prose and poetry material submitted by the students of the college.

Each year SCRIBE gives an award for the most outstanding literary achievement on the part of an Emerson student.

This year SCRIBE introduced an annual award given for the most creative achievement of an Emerson student in the field of photography.

The Studios of WERS-TV have undergone a transformation during this past year. The staff and other interested students worked for several weeks in remodeling the studio. A new room has been added for the new Ampex Video Tape Recorder and other projection material, and its former location now houses racks of electronic equipment. A newly built wall will house various monitors, and future plans include a lowered ceiling that may house an air-conditioning system.

Other changes at WERS will include remodeling of the news room and staff offices, as well as a more functional master control room. A new FM audio limiter amplifier will complement these improvements.

WERS looks forward to a successful year of presenting entertainment to the students of Emerson College.

During this, the tenth anniversary of Emerson's closed-circuit commercial radio station, WECB has made tremendous strides in all major areas of expansion. Through the guidance of its sales staff, total advertising sales have reached the $1400.00 mark. This money has enabled WECB to purchase new professional turntables and tape cartridge systems. With the new equipment, WECB can boast of one of the most professional, up-to-date studios in Boston radio.

The publicity campaigns have been extremely successful this year with three full days of live remote broadcasts from "Autorama," at the War Memorial Auditorium and a "Bathop" dance here in the college theatre.

February, WECB increased its listening audience by installing transmitter facilities in the Massachusetts General Hospital Dormitories on Charles Street, and at the Governor's House at 150 Beacon Street; thus, bringing the total listening audience of Emerson, Fisher, Burdett, and Massachusetts General to well over 4,000 students.

Three graduating seniors, Record Librarian, Tom Smith, Chief Engineer, John Rigrod, and Station Manager, Vin DiBona, will look on WECB with fond memories for many years to come. Through their four years of consistent hard work, WECB has reached a level of high standards in the broadcasting industry.

WERS is an entirely student operated FM station of 18,000 watts and is non-commercial rather than educational. This year as in previous years the largest project was the election coverage, which was exceptional in a non-presidential year.

The aims of the station have been to maintain the good station image and to give greater public service by the presentation of programs based on controversial matters.

STEAM is the Student Teachers Educational Association of Massachusetts. It is affiliated with the National Education Association. Membership is open to all students who intend to be connected with a school system and is not limited to those who are solely interested in teaching positions. The Emerson chapter sponsors speakers concerning education, a Student Teacher Night, in which the student teachers tell of their experiences in the school systems and answer questions of interested students, and this year STEAM also sponsored trips to a Montessori School in the Boston area. STEAM, under the direction of Dr. Coleman C. Bender, is planning other activities for interested students.

Each year from approximately 775 colleges and universities outstanding students are recognized in WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. At Emerson a committee composed of faculty and undergraduate student leaders are instructed to consider, in making their selections, the student's scholarship; his participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities; his citizenship and service to the school; and his promise of future usefulness.

ALPHA EPSILON RHO

The Beta Delta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Rho received its Charter in April, 1963. Beta Delta, along with 33 other chapters throughout the United States, make up this National Honorary Radio and Television Fraternity.

Highlighting Beta Delta activities this year will be the hosting of the 1966 National Convention. Convention headquarters will be at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel, and distinguished speakers for the convention include Thomas Moore, President of ABC-TV; Bill Todman of Goodson and Todman Productions; and Commissioner Robert E. Lee of the Federal Communications Commission. The convention will be bringing people from all over the country to Boston, and to Emerson College.

Throughout the school year, Beta Delta sponsors social events for the students at the college through its sponsorship of a film festival, record hops, and blitz parties. Members of Beta Delta again this year acted as hosts and hostesses for the annual all college Christmas party.

Sigma Alpha Eta is the National Speech and Hearing Honor Fraternity, created to provide to all students who are interested in Speech Pathology and Audiology, more extensive social and professional experiences.

The Beta Delta Chapter at Emerson plans various activities to create and stimulate interest among the students; to encourage professional growth through learning experiences; to foster a spirit of unity by coordinating the interests and efforts of persons with a common goal, by providing situations in which students and faculty may work together as a team to advance the profession as a whole; to inspire high planes of achievement in academic and clinical activities; and to aid in building wholesome public relations with other college departments and with local organizations concerned with the field of Speech Pathology and Audiology.

SIGMA ALPHA ETA

Phi Mu Gamma is an international, professional fraternity for young women which has as its aim the intelligent advancement of the Fine Arts.

Phi Mu's two major contributions for the 1965-1966 academic year were the annual art exhibit featuring the works of the instructors of the Museum School and the newly initiated faculty show which will become an annual program. Other activities included an evening at the European Restaurant with the Brothers of Phi Alpha Tau; the Senior Farewell Banquet; and a fund raising project for donations to the Abbot Memorial Library. During Parent's Weekend a tea was held.

Phi Mu Gamma's year was exceptionally fruitful and certainly upheld its tradition in working for mental and artistic development.

ZETA PHI ETA

Zeta Phi Eta, National Professional Speech Arts Fraternity, the oldest national group of its kind, was founded at Northwestern University in 1893. In 1908, Zeta Phi Eta affiliated with Phi Eta Sigma, a local organization founded in 1901 at Emerson College. In the affiliation, the chapter at Boston became Alpha, the one at Evanston, Beta. The cameo and pearl pin of Alpha became the official badge, and the shield and torch of Beta, the Coat of Arms.

Alpha Chapter sponsors yearly the Faculty Tea and the Speech and Hearing Clinic Party for the young clients. The sisters are the official ushers of the Theatre Arts Department. In our active Emerson life we are the only sorority with a brother fraternity. With Rho Delta Omega, Zeta sponsors college functions, including the ever popular Corn Ball in the spring. In the final round of the first Emerson All College Debate, Zeta and Rho Delta faced each other in an exciting match. The sisters feel that even though Zeta won by a few points, the Championship is held jointly by Rho Delta Omega and Zeta Phi Eta.

Zeta Phi Eta plays a vital role at Emerson, as it remains active to uphold its professional purposes and policies.

KAPPA GAMMA CHI

The primary aim of Kappa Gamma Chi is the building of ideal womanhood, based on Love, Loyalty, Trust, and Harmony. The secondary aim is the endowment of Emerson College.

Kappa Gamma Chi was founded at Emerson College in 1902. The majority of the sisters live at the "Kappa House" 190 Beacon Street.

Some of the activities on the "Kappa Kalendar" this year included the annual Kappa Auction, the Homecoming Tea, a Christmas Party held at the sorority house, a sorority formal, and the annual Spaghetti Throw.

Kappa also awarded its Kappa Gamma Chi scholarship to a Junior, continued its endowment of the library fund, and did volunteer work for the Heart Association. It also sent to press two Alumni Newspapers.

RHO DELTA OMEGA

The year 1965-1966 saw Rho Delta Omega, Emerson's social fraternity, reach a high point in the diversification of its activities.

Rho Delta Omega plays an active part in school activities as is evidenced by the fact that several of the brothers hold offices in SGA, AERho, Psychology Club, Emersonian, Wrestling Team, and the Baseball team. Three brothers were elected to "Who's Who."

The brothers participated in the Annual All-College Debate Tournament, in which they took second place.

The highlight of the Dream Girl Ball was the crowning of Vicki Chasens as "Dream Girl." RDO also sponsored the highly successful "Thunderjug" in conjunction with Zeta Phi Eta, their sister sorority.

Rho Delt displayed their ability in sports by winning the annual inter-fraternity football game.

Rho Delta Omega looks back upon the past year with pride in its achievements and growth through brotherhood.

PHI ALPHA TAU

Phi Alpha Tau, national professional communicative arts fraternity, began its academic year with the third annual freshman talent show—Showcase '69. The purpose of this program is to present to the Emerson student body incoming freshmen with a certain talent in one area or another.

Tau also rounded out the Christmas season with the annual Christmas Carol Sing. Highlights included caroling through the Boston Common, Louisburg Square, and singing Christmas songs with Dr. and Mrs. McKinley in the Mahogany Room at 150 Beacon Street.

The most exciting event for Tau is the presentation of the Joseph E. Connor Memorial Award, given yearly to a person who best exemplifies excellence in an aspect of the communicative arts. Past recipients have been Red Skelton, Arthur Fiedler, Edward W. Brooke, and the late Edward R. Murrow.

Other services included assisting Phi Mu Gamma with their art exhibit, helping the Salvation Army, gathering books for the library, and presenting a play with Kappa Gamma Chi. New on the Tau agenda was the Emerson College Press Conference, which gave students a chance to question our administrators concerning matters of policy and regulations.

Tau ended the year with their annual Mad Ball, their only social function. It consisted of colorful costumes, rock and roll, and liquid refreshment.

Tau also participated in inter-fraternity sports.

ALPHA PI THETA

Founded in 1946, the Fraternity of Alpha Pi Theta is a social fraternity with the goals of brotherhood and service. This past year Theta has successfully sponsored the Theta Fair, and two Theta Twists.

The brothers are diversified in their interests, curricula, and chosen professions. In school, the brothers participate in baseball, wrestling, sailing club, WECB, WERS, and several are elected officers of classes and organizations, and Gold Key Society.

Theta's concern is the advancement of Emerson's image, effectiveness, and relations.

PAN HELLENIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Pan Hellenic Association of Emerson College is to serve the best interests of the College and the sororities at all times. A president from each sorority serves as President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer of the Association in annual rotation. These officers, with a Pan Hellenic and a rush representative from each sorority, serve as the Executive Council.

In the spring semester of 1966, a new and successful rush plan was initiated. With the rushees meeting each sorority at three individual rush functions, in addition to the Pan Hellenic Open House, both sorority and rushee became well acquainted. Pan Hellenic feels the choice a woman eligible for sorority makes can be one of her most important at Emerson. The rushee of 1966 and of many more semesters to come will accept the bond of sisterhood with more awareness and assurance than rushees of past years. To provide such awareness and assurance is the function of the Pan Hellenic Association at Emerson.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council is composed of the three fraternities on campus. Its main function is to set up pledging dates, eligibility requirements for pledging, and a schedule for inter-fraternity sporting events.

The organization was created to promote better relationships among the fraternities, Alpha Pi Theta, Phi Alpha Tau and Rho Delta Omega. This year's capable officers were: Rich Malmed, President—Rho Delta Omega; Bruce Lyons, Vice President—Phi Alpha Tau; and Phil Press, Secretary-Treasurer, Alpha Pi Theta.

EMERSON COLLEGE CENTER for the PERFORMING ARTS

The Emerson College Center for the Performing Arts is an extension of Emerson College's summer school program. The 22-building campus is located on 80 acres of rolling hills overlooking Crystal Lake in Harrison, Maine. There are 20 lake-front cottages, a large rustic lodge, and of course, the charming well-equipped Deertrees Theatre with its seating capacity for 400.

Working, studying, and living at the Center offer the theatre student an opportunity to learn about all facets of theatre. Three productions go up during the season and are presented to the public for further experience of the students.

FOUR'S COMPANY

"Four's Company" is a new folk group from Emerson College. Their sound is pleasant and vibrant, a mixture of four voices: three men and one woman who work together to achieve a polished blend of voice, material and arrangement. They seek to present selections which are interesting as well as polished; enjoyable as well as artistic. But unlike many contemporary artists, their singing does not reflect a chip-on-the-shoulder philosophy, nor does it reflect aimless, general protest. Four's Company is not afraid to protest, but it refuses to become a group whose repertoire expresses perpetual discontent. In brief, these four people feel they should think out, sing out, and speak out. For Four's Company, this combination seems to work out. Emerson is indeed proud of this new group and wishes it much success.

Neil—Steve

BIG BAD BACK BAY BAD BOYS

One might assume that the title "Big Bad Back Bay Bad Boys" would refer to a gang of motorcycling toughs, but quite the contrary—the boys sing. And they sing quite well. Neil and Steve have represented Emerson in the realm of the folk singers and with the pride and admiration of Emerson with them all the way.

The class of 1967 held the Annual Vaudeville Show in early December, a tradition instituted by the class of 1966; but the class built on their success with a very professional show led by Vice-President Tom Marcello and Judy Johnson. An enthusiastic class effort made the Junior Vaudeville Show an admirable first semester function.

Highlighting second semester's social functions was the annual Junior Prom, traditionally held in honor of the seniors. A year's planning brought about a weekend that was enjoyed by all. This year we had a night at "The Boston Pops" and a Sunday picnic at Castle Hill, Massachusetts.

Frank Napal, Freshman Class President, has led his class through a very successful year. Frank did a fine job of organization. He appointed an executive committee of 8 members which met at least once a month. Featured were two dances, one a rousing discoteque, and two variety shows. The first show served as a general get-to-know your class function. The second show was a creative enterprise based upon one theme and fully written and directed by class members. Yes, creativity was the theme of the class of 1969. Our creative effort gave us First Prize in the Winter Carnival snow sculpture contest. An art show in May added to Parents' Weekend. Freshmen also helped sponsor the blood drive for Viet Nam. The class established a college directory.

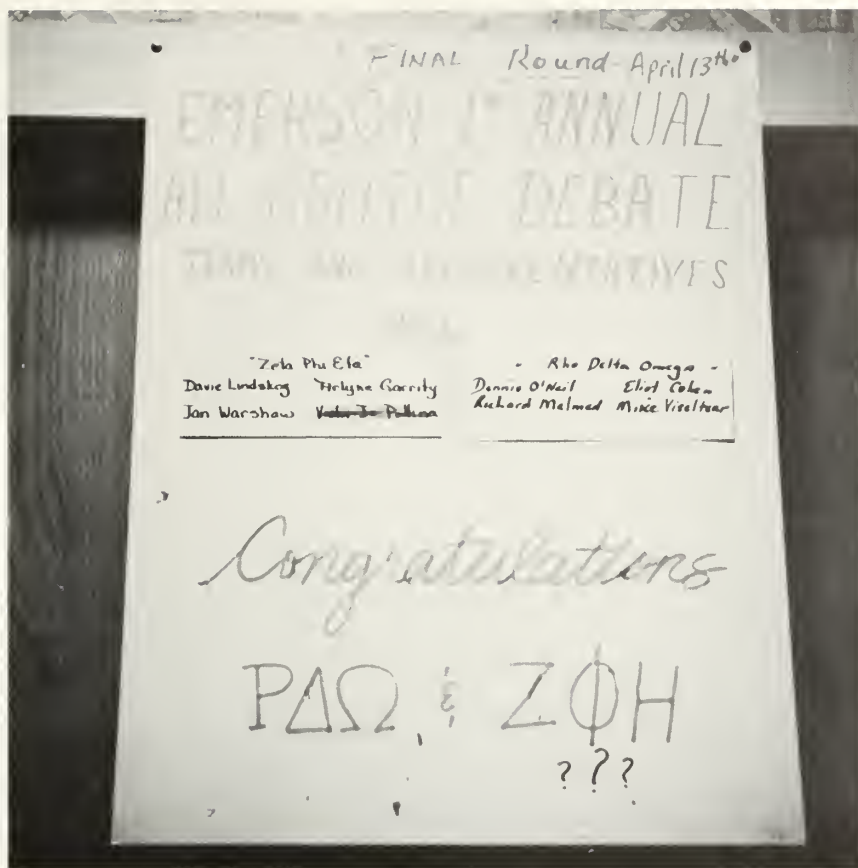

COLLEGE BOWL

October 25th, 1964, saw four members of the class of 1966 compete with Loyola University on the General Electric College Bowl. Under the guidance of Dr. Coleman C. Bender, the team of Jim Allen, Mary Jane Shields, Judy Klinger and Don Huppert came well prepared.

They had undergone rigorous tutoring by the faculty of the individual departments. This culminated in a series of challenge matches between the student team and the faculty. Encouraged by the outcome, the preparation continued with challenge matches between Emerson and the Norfolk Prison Team, the prospective team from the University of Rhode Island and other neighboring schools.

The intensive preparation gave viewers the opportunity of seeing an exciting game played by an outstanding team.

"Resolved: that off-campus student behavior should not be the concern of the college." This was the proposition for the First Annual All-College Debate Tournament organized and run by the graduate students in the Speech Department. The purpose of this activity was to expose students to debate and representatives of most classes and organizations participated in this successful "first" for Emerson and the debaters. In the final round Rho Delta Omega faced Zeta Phi Eta and lost the tournament to them by a small margin. The enthusiastic response on the part of the whole College was indicative of increased interest in and awareness of forensic activities—a healthy sign in a communication-oriented society.

*February 28, 29,
March 1*

The Sophomore Class of 1966 presented Emerson College's Second Annual Winter Carnival, "Winter Wonderland" on February 28, 29 and March 1, 1964. The weekend began with a skating party and an informal dance. Saturday afternoon the candidates for Queen, Barbara Tuerkheimer, Barbara Rubin, Sue Moss, Sue Eichenwald and Barbara Dine, modeled clothes from Worth's in a fashion show. Later in the afternoon a wrestling match was held for those not interested in fashions. The highlight of the weekend was the dance on Saturday night when Sue Moss was crowned Queen. Brown and Dana, a folk-singing duo, performed in the Theatre on Sunday afternoon and the weekend was topped off with a basketball game at Quincy Junior College.

A weekend with everything: Senior Promenade. May 7, 8, 9 was that special weekend dedicated to the Class of 1965 by the Class of 1966, carefully planned by Tom Smith and Bobbi Rubin, co-chairmen.

To begin: an exciting evening cruise around Boston Harbor aboard the S.S. Promenade . . . "Promenade," an unforgettable evening of love and beauty and music, highlighted by the crowning of Barbara Tuerkheimer as Prom Queen . . . to end: a day of fun, gaiety and laughter at Canobie Lake, New Hampshire.
